

Brandon Mogan, PE

Brandon Mogan, PE is the founder and President of Tora Consulting, LLC (Tora). Tora provides strategic environmental permitting and compliance services to industrial clients across the United States. Tora's experts are exceedingly familiar with the equipment, processes, challenges, and applicable environmental regulations across the entire commercial and residential roofing manufacturing supply chain. There is no other consulting firm with more comprehensive and concentrated environmental expertise specific to the roofing industry. Brandon is an alumni of the University of South Carolina and currently resides in Gilbert, South Carolina.