

Tad Radzinski, P.E., ISSP-CSP, LEED A.P., SFP
Certification Officer
GreenCircle Certified, LLC

With over 35 years of practical experience, Tad Radzinski is a leading expert in corporate responsibility, sustainable product analysis and innovation, and sustainable buildings and operations. Tad, co-founder and Certification Officer of GreenCircle Certified, LLC, provides third-party verification of environmental claims for products and operations, ensuring transparency in the green marketplace. Tad is responsible for the development of GreenCircle's ISO 17065 compliant certification scheme and directed the GreenCircle team on the development and implementation of GreenCircle's rigorous evaluation process. Utilizing his extensive experience with green building standards, international codes and standards, auditing, sustainability, and waste management, he actively contributes to the development of industry-leading standards and certifications. Tad has also directed the development of the GreenCircle Certified Environmental Facts (CEF) Multi-attribute certification system. The CEF label and all GreenCircle Certifications are recommended by the United States Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) Environmentally Preferable Purchasing (EPP) Program. GreenCircle's CEF label and other certifications are now recommended as Tier 1 approved Ecolabels for all Federal Government Agencies.

Formerly the EPA's Waste Minimization Program National Expert, Tad has been a trusted advisor for Fortune 500 companies including ASSA ABLOY, Unilever, Merck, Stanley Black & Decker, GAF, Saint-Gobain, Kohler, General Motors, Dow, and BASF. Tad participates as an adviser and member of organizations including the Sustainable Purchasing Leadership Council (SPLC) and is former chair of the webinar committee for the International Society of Sustainability Professionals.
